Student Council Elections

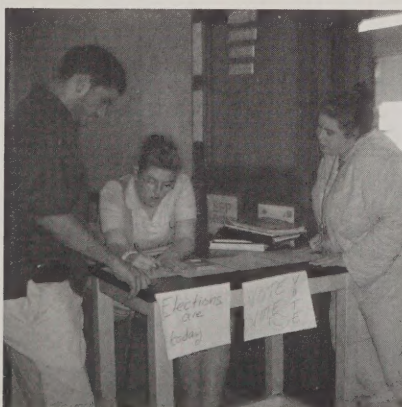

On September 25, 2007

It was a tough race for the seniors and the freshmen. Senior Rafael Figuereo was an ideal candidate. He was shaking hands until the very last minute. The freshmen made creative posters, but were a little camera shy. The National Honor Society ran the elections with advisor Ms. Power.

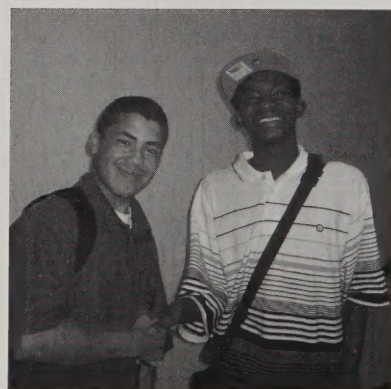

National Honor Society member Tahina Desinord takes senior Ralph Dugue's ballot.

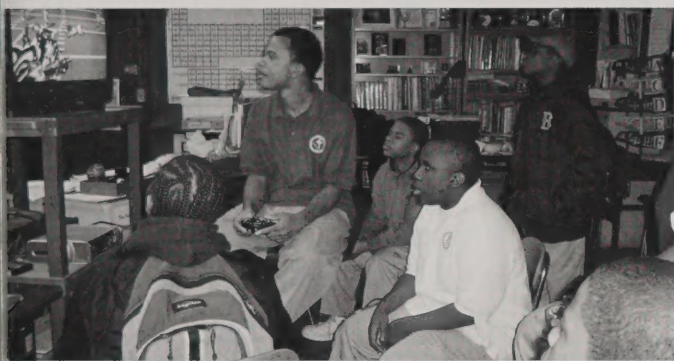

National Honor Society member Alexis Terrizzi helps a student.

Most Memorable Moments

"When I first began attending the NHS meetings I was late a few times. That was kind of awkward, embarrassing, and funny to see Ms. Power's facial reaction."

-Shaquille Gaines

"When we had the Induction Ceremony at the gym for the first time, we were so worried that the candles were going to start the fire alarm and we would all have to run out (Luckily it didn't)."

-Jessica Gonzalez

"Cleaning the school during the summer with Viviana, Sahrgine, and Ms. Power (Pudding on the ceiling)."

-Alexis Terrizzi

"Helping other students do the right thing."

-William Phillips

"My most memorable moment was the first time I went to a National Honor Society meeting. I didn't know what to expect, but I quickly grew comfortable."

-Xavier Shropshire

"The most memorable moment is when we were inducted. It was a nice ceremony. We had a chance to tell people what we do and who we are. I also remember when we did the candy bags. We had a chance to raise money."

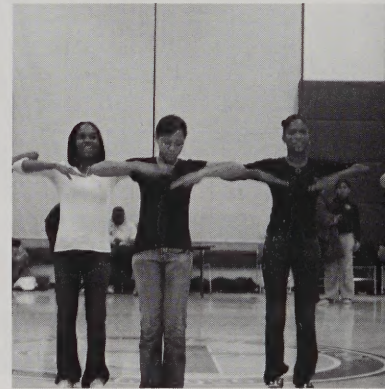

-Samantha Cantave
